First Come, First Served: How WFDD Parks Work

Looking for a place to gather outdoors? WFDD's parks are open to everyone, year-round, and we love seeing residents make the most of them. Because these parks are funded by resident tax dollars, we're committed to keeping them welcoming for the whole community. For this reason, WFDD doesn't take reservations for groups of any size at park facilities. The pavilions at Willow Fork and Exploration parks are first-come, first-served for gatherings up to 20, not to exceed three hours. They're meant to be shared, so use for private events that exclude other visitors is not allowed. Central Green is the district's signature event venue located within LaCenterra. The space is not available for outside rentals, but groups interested in performing can email WFDD Parks General Manager Yvonne Arceneaux at yvonne@willowforkparks.com for consideration. For complete guidelines, including hours of operation, pets, parking, music, alcohol, advertising, and more, view WFDD Park Rules on our website.

Parks, Potholes and Pipes: Who Handles What?

WFDD covers about 5,700 acres, including Cinco Ranch, Kelliwood, Canyon Gate, Falcon Ranch, and Parkway Oaks, but we're not the only agency that keeps infrastructure running. Thirteen MUDs operate within the district, along with county government, CenterPoint, and your HOA. With multiple layers, it's not always clear who to contact.

WFDD can help with:

- Drainage channels, including the diversion channel.
- Off-street trails and parks, including Central Green, Willow Fork Park and Exploration Park

Contact us on the WFDD Website.

Our partners can help with:

- Streets, potholes, signs, and county-road ditches: Your county at Ft. Bend County Service Requests or Harris County 311.
- Power outages: CenterPoint at Outage Reporting Center.
- Streetlights: CenterPoint at Street Light Reporting. Have the pole number ready.
- Water, sewer, and neighborhood drainage: Your MUD district.
- Common areas, recreation facilities and pocket parks: Your HOA.

For security concerns at district parks and trails:

- Call the Ft Bend Co Sheriff's Office non-emergency line at 281-341-4665. For emergencies, call 911.
